

Randazzo Joins Republican Committee Staff

June 9, 2009

Ranking Member Spencer Bachus announced the appointment of Vincent Randazzo as Deputy Staff Director, Communications.

In this role, Randazzo will lead the strategic communications efforts at the Committee, including coordination with leadership and member offices.

Ranking Member Bachus said, "Vince is a great addition to our team. His extensive experience with financial services issues, both in the private sector and on Capitol Hill, provides him with a unique perspective and expertise of the issues before the Committee."

Randazzo brings over 19 years of legislative experience to his new position. Before leaving the Hill in 2001, he was Chief of Staff for the Committee on Rules. Most recently, he served as Director of Government Relations for Wachovia Corporation. Prior to joining Wachovia, Randazzo was Director of Public Policy for the Business Roundtable.

###