Congressman Spencer Bachus (R-6th, Alabama), Ranking Member of the House Financial Services Committee, today announced that the following members have been appointed to serve as ranking members of the committee's subcommittees.

The appointments include:

Rep. Paul Gillmor (R-5th, OH): Subcommittee on Financial Institutions and Consumer Credit.

Rep. Deborah Pryce (R- 15th, OH): Subcommittee on Capital Markets, Insurance, and Government-Sponsored Enterprises.

Rep. Ron Paul (R- 14th, TX): Subcommittee on Domestic and International Monetary Policy, Trade, and Technology.

Rep. Judy Biggert (R- 13th, IL): Subcommittee on Housing and Community Opportunity.

Rep. Gary Miller (R-42nd, CA): Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations.

"The House Financial Services Committee will face a number of important issues during the 110th Congress," stated Rep. Bachus. "During my service on the committee, I have gotten to know these individuals very well. They are all top-notch legislators who will perform their new duties with integrity, thoughtfulness, and energy."
